CLAB

Law accounting and business

MEMBER BENEFITS

—

2017

PROVIDING PROFESSIONAL EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMMING TO THE CANNABIS INDUSTRY

MEMBER BENEFITS

Discounted legal services from Wilson & Elser & Access to a free legal hotline specializing in cannabis issues

10 Monthly Meetings – (Approximately 3 hours each) Every third Thursday of the month.

Each meeting will fall into 1 of 3 formats

Panel Discussion

A CLAB Chairperson will lead a panel into a discussion of a selected theme. The panelists will represent industry operators, legislators, industry attorneys, accountant or subject manner experts. The panel will then receive pre-submitted question from our members, concluding with a cocktail reception.

Lecture

This will be reserved for incredibly influential legislators, lobbyist or industry experts sharing the most important industry updates. This will be the rarest type of meeting. Like the panel discussion, the guest lecturer will have a Q&A session, concluding with a cocktail reception.

Interactive Workshop

CLAB members will be pared into teams and presented an operational, legislative or market hurdle/problem to solve using a panel of experts. Said experts will provide guidance to each group. Results will be judged and announced, the expert panel will go over results with member groups, concluding with a cocktail reception.

Exclusive Membership – Potential candidates for the Cannabis LAB include the following:

Executive Cannabis Operational Teams. The C-level members of cannabis companies operating compliantly within state and municipal law.

The executive teams of the ancillary cannabis companies providing a product or specialized service to the industry.

The professional offering his/her education to the betterment and professionalism of the industry. Good examples of said members are , lawyers, account

Expert level content – Expert level Networking

The programming delivered to the membership base of the cannabis lab is of an expert level. Specifically designed to educate the executive involved in the industry our topic and themed discussion assume an intermediate level of knowledge of the cannabis industry's nuances. Attendance to our events will surely Relationship within the cannabis industry are vital to a successful operation. CLAB members are examples of success stories within the industry and most importantly, influencer of its future. Knowledge is power and both can be found within the membership of the Cannabis LAB.

Additional Benefits

Monthly Newsletter- CLAB members receive our monthly newsletter focused upon providing a cannabis event calendar, issues concerning local, state or federal governance and whitepapers from content partners.

Special Event Invitation- Members will be included in special breakfast or lunch private gatherings hosted by a subject matter expert and specifically addressing regulatory reforms, operational best practices, political awareness.

Cost of Membership

Individual - $500

Corporate - $1000 (3 attendees)